Midnight Noon Richard Acosta

A coming of age tale about the bearded man, whom of which is on a journey to right the wrongs of his past. We grow up with him as he thieves his way across the hellish enclave of the American West known as Diablo Canyon. As he is literally stealing away the prime of his youth, he forms an unusual friendship with the son of the only supply store in town. It is this friendship that serves to be the catalyst of sea change until he is forced to make a choice between friendship and death right up to very end of his short life. Midnight Noon is an interstitial allegory written under the guise of an old pulp western that challenges the reader to look deeper into what is merely written.
