Allowing a friend to bring her out to a bar after a recent break-up, Elena encounters the mysterious and attractive bartender. He intrigues her and she recognizes that there is a great deal more to him than meets the eye. Resolving to get to know him further, she strikes up a conversation and begins to feel herself being drawn to him.

The more she appraised him though, the more she began to fall into the silent calling of attraction that seemed to naturally radiate from him; the same calling that had left her feeling speechless...
