Jean Luc's Story is the second part to the Desire's Dilemma series. The story opens with our heroine Elizabeth still reeling from her lover Daniel's confession. He then complicates matters by sending his brother, Jean Luc, to the UK to oversee the family's business interests... and to spy on Elizabeth. Jean Luc's remit - get close to Elizabeth, build up her trust and find out what he can about what she is hiding.

Problem is that sometimes "getting close" to someone ends with you getting close to them in more ways than is originally intended. Jean Luc is torn about being true to his brother and to his own heart. Which will he choose? Is his desire to retain his relationship with his brother greater than his carnal desire for a woman? But then.. this wasn't just any woman.
