A letter in the mail, a hurried kiss goodbye, and a long train ride to her new life marks the end of Mary's childhood and the beginning of her new life as an obedient house wife.

What she finds when she arrives surprises her. Her husband is nowhere to be found, and she's informed that she'll be living by herself until her fiance is finished overseeing a harvest.

To pass the time, she gets a job as a local schoolteacher... but a dangerous flirtation with her eldest student, Tom, will lead to a scenario she couldn't picture in her wildest dreams.

What she doesn't know is Tom isn't the man he seems to be... and she'll find out just how little she knows about the man she's marrying when they finally meet face to face.
