The Scottish Highlands are a dangerous place. No more so than in 1744, the year before the bloodiest battle of the Scottish Uprisings.

Sophie Hogarth, the only daughter of the arrogant and distant Colonel Hogarth, Viscount Boyne, brought here by her father, finds herself on the edge of a Highland forest on the brink of a war. Being who she is, resourceful, free-spirited Sophie is soon riding in the forest, where she finds Bryce Gowan, the remote, powerful leader of the local rebel forces. Being Sophie, she is drawn into helping him, and, soon finds herself falling in love. Being Bryce, he finds himself falling for her in return. But their love is soon face-to-face with the pitiless hardness of the war. They are to be tested to their limits, and beyond. Can their love survive? Can they? Fate holds a dark path for them both. Can they find the light, and can they find each other?

A tale of blood and battle, life, death, lust and enduring love, set against the tumultuous, magnificent wildness of the Scottish Highlands.
