The institute of marriage is no longer a sacred one in society. Over half of all marriages in the U.S. fail, usually disintegrating before the fifth anniversary. Even Christian couples are not immune to these statistics.

The Love Factor in Marriage describes a modern scenario where many believers, filled with the world's ideals in respect to their marriage, are ultimately tempted to neglect the nurturing of their love. Author Daniel J. Vassell, Sr. debunks the myths associated with love and reveals the roots of dysfunction in our most intimate of relationships.

Well researched and informative, The Love Factor in Marriage will open your eyes to truth, separate fact from fiction, and expose the damaged foundations that underpin our seemingly happy marriages.

This book is for anyone who is married or is planning on getting married. You will gain a wealth of insight and understanding about love, responsibilities of relationships, and communication.
