Father Hunger Robert S. McGee

No matter what someone's father was like, chances are he or she longs for a better relationship with him. Robert McGee understands the impact of father hunger both from personal experience and from his extensive work as a Christian counselor. He offers practical insight into the types of fathers we have and our responses to them. He understands what happens when our trust is violated and we try various methods to escape the pain. The problem of father hunger affects not only our relationships with family and friends, it also deeply affects the way we think about God. With honesty and spiritual insight, McGee tackles this difficult issue in order to draw readers into a stronger and more confident relationship with their heavenly Father.
