When Survivors Disclose P.H.

There are millions of abuse survivors in the world and chances are, sooner or later, one or more will disclose to you within your marriage, relationship, friendship, or practice.

When this happens it is not business as usual. Instead of unintentionally inflicting secondary wounds learn exactly what to do to be genuinely supportive in these relationships and assist the healing process.

- Understand the aftereffects of abuse in depth.
- Gain intimate knowledge of the survivor's perspective.
- Dramatically increase the empathy of your responses.
- Increase the comfort level & successful treatment of survivors in your practice.
