Women In Sync is a compilation of insight from women, and men, from around the world. In each chapter an author shares their experience of thriving in the world, moving through difficulties and the wisdom they wish they had during those difficulties. In our sharing we know we are building a strong community of people who not only seek to make a difference, but seek to be the difference. Our difference that we make in the world is how we share our most vulnerable fears and transform them into power. This sharing assists others in empowering women by creating a safe place for them to share their wisdom.
