THIS IS A STANDALONE

August and his crew are straight cutthroat. Each of them brings their own individuality to the crew making them untouchable. August is the true definition of the word Goon. He is known for being a by any means necessary type of dude. He lives each day like it's his last taking whatever he doesn't have.

Khori is running from her past. She relocates to Florida for a fresh start. She is beautiful and intelligent.

From the outside looking in, she has everything going for herself.

Neither of them was looking for love, but coincidentally, love found them. In their eyes, they are perfect for each other, but not everyone is going to be happy for them or bless their union. One wrong decision will drastically change their lives forever. Read along to see if the good girl can tame her goon.
