Everyone loves weddings—well, everyone but the Larson brides.

What do multiple weddings finally getting to happen, a new career for Ellen, and an art gallery opening have in common?

They're all in this new light-hearted addition to the Art of Love series. Packed with lots of resolution and the wobbly path to matrimony for some of Larson brides, this romantic comedy about weddings will have you laughing from beginning to end.

NOTE: For max enjoyment of the entire Larson family saga, reading the previous three books in this sexy romance series is highly recommended.

About the Art Of Love series...

The Art Of Love series begins with the stories of the three Larson men. Books 1-3 cover the romances of Will Larson and his two adult sons, Michael and Shane. Each hero in this series is an artist. Each heroine in the series is bit damaged. Sometimes the stories get a little too real when complicated family relationships make dating even more challenging. This romantic comedy series is humorous, but also emotionally charged. Books 4 and 5 carry on this tradition.
