Young Abbie is haunted by the death of her parents.

She was young.

It was years ago.

It doesn't matter...

Yet in her twenties Abbie finds herself unable to let go of the past, and the burden she carries with her is dragging her down... no matter how hard she tries to fight against it.

Then, she finds out she is going to be homeless, and she has nowhere to go.

How is she going to make it in a world she is terrified of? Will she ever be able to lead a real life or get married? How is she going to meet a husband when she sees all men as that hooded man from long ago?

In desperation Abbie decides to take a leap of faith and marry an Oregon man, but her past seems to replay itself in a sleepless night in Montana. Will Abbie be able to pull through and do what she thought she should have done all those years before? Will she be able to trust again? Or will she keep running?
