A succinct book informing successful professional men on how to be as successful in their private lives as they are in their careers. This is not a book for "players," nor is it a "how to" sex manual. Rather, it provides suggestions on how to find, woo, and obtain long-lasting women with high caliber females in today's high-speed, modern world. Many times, female relatives will ask themselves why is it that their handsome, successful male family member is not "attached." Sometimes, it is because that guy is so involved in his work that he fails to recognize that a successful, meaningful relationship takes as much work as does success in the professional sense. Such concerned relatives should buy this book for the guys they love to ensure their personal happiness.
