Ifedayo came from a humble background and from a well known family in her place. Because of her family's background as the daughter of number citizen in her homeland. Ifeoluwa and ifedayo met in a local service where ifeoluwa was the one preaching that day and that is how they met and they later fell in love with each other. The two began to learn from each other's cultures differences and the way of their lifestyle. Before Ifeoluwa met ifedayo, he did not know anything about her family background and status in the society.
