Robert Preston, a mean, ruthless man, left many victims in his wake, after losing at love. When his wife, Renee, walked out on him, something snapped inside of Robert.

Or had the evil lingered within him all his life? Is it possible that his childhood had a hand in creating the monster that he'd become?

Even steel bars couldn't contain his need to destroy Renee, and he didn't care what he had to do in order to exact his revenge. He'd kill her and everyone she loved.

As Robert the King, he became unstoppable in his own mind. But not in Renee's.

Her hunger to finally put an end to her nightmare ex was equaled only by Robert's need to destroy her, along with the Montclairs. The clock was ticking, the fuse had been lit, but Tyler would move heaven and earth to save the woman he loved and their unborn child.

No one knew what would happen during the impact of that horrible night.

But one thing was certain. Someone wasn't going to make it out alive.
