"Blake's gaze was still on my lips. His breath fluttered on my face as he drew closer, closer..."

Justice Warren came to L.A. to be an actress, but all too soon she learned that show business is like an exclusive club, and membership is bought, not earned. After four years waiting for her big break, she finally gets it -- as the maid to Hollywood's most eligible bachelor, a movie star with the looks to match, Carson Blake.

So it's not the big break that she expected, but neither is Blake. When Justice is unexpectedly attacked by one of Blake's stalkers, he's eager to come to her rescue, and he's offering more than just a band-aid for her wounds.

Justice is an independent black woman. Blake is a love-starved white man. Justice knows real life isn't like the movies, but the affections of this beautiful older man might be too decadent to refuse...
