The Book of Judas: The Dreamwalker (Volume 1) The Mad Sandman

Zach is a regular guy. He plays video games. He has a wife. He has two kids. They had the perfect life together. And now he's moving back to his hometown in Florida. Zach can't wait to reunite with his high school friends. Their group was beyond family. From late night gaming to bonfires on the beach, they learned everything about life from one another. Now, Zach is returning to share his old life with his new family. But his old life has its dark secrets. In a night long passed, an innocent game with a Ouija board released a spirit into this world. For years the spirit evoked images within the shadows of dreams and darkness. But now, that spirit is no longer silent. Nightmares haunted with demons, ghosts, and screams, telling them "The gate must open." Who is this spirit that haunts their dreams? Was it awakened by the board? Why was Zach's best friend locked in a mental hospital? And how can Zach save his family's life—or is it already too late? The first installment of The Book of Judas: The Dreamwalker is one you'll never forget, and one that will haunt you long after its final pages.
