Many people these days are looking for something to believe. They may have lost their way and need direction. Many are turning to religion for guidance. This essay is a plea for reality in religion. Its theme is this: that faith is not mere intellectual assent to a creed, it is the consent of the whole man, mind, conscience, heart, will, to the will of God. Because faith, essentially, is receptivity of soul, to know the truth we must strive to live the truth. The vital requirement of religion, therefore, is fidelity to present faith, obedience to accepted truth.
