Terry Rippl

All dressed up and nowhere to go! Tippy the new dog detective in town finds it tough going when no one calls on him for help. His attempts to generate some business for his new agency fall short - and speaking of short, this vertically challenged dynamo faces challenges that others handle with no problem. The tide turns, however, when his diminutive stature becomes a lifesaver when a neighbor's pet finds itself in dire trouble.

Terry Rippl lives in Gahanna, Ohio with his wife Pam and two dogs, Tippy and Annie. He has written poetry since he was in high school and has been published in the United States and in England. He has also cowritten 5 Christian Children Plays that have been performed over the past 8 years in front of over 200 children at a time. He is a retired engineer for the Department of Defense, and a member of the Defense Supply Center Columbus Hall of Fame. When he's not writing, he loves being a substitute teacher, almost exclusively for primary grade children. His wife is a 1st grade teacher at Chapelfield Elementary School in Gahanna, OH. Guess who her favorite sub is!
