A Package to India is a light-hearted look at a trip to India, Nepal, and Bhutan with a group of friends called "The BEST EVER GANG." It describes the amazing kaleidoscope of South Asia, the wonderful people met along the way, and the quirks of travel that are often hilarious, sometimes tiring, but always interesting. Not intended as a scholarly endeavor, the book, with its 190 color photographs, tries to bring the reader into the circle of travelers. It is a great way to prepare for your own expedition, or even a helpful guide to selecting a destination. The book is as personal as it is international, and it presents the journey as a story to be enjoyed and shared.
