* The definitive guide to Irish trout and salmon rivers

* Completely revised and updated

Praise for the second edition of Rivers of Ireland:

"This is a remarkable guide and reference book which immediately establishes itself as definitive in its field."--Shooting Times

"This book meets all the criteria by which an angling guide must be judged. It provides exactly the information the prospective angler needs: the how, the where and the when . . . information he can waste hours or days trying to find out for himself."--Trout and Salmon

The only comprehensive guide to Ireland's trout and salmon waters is back in a thoroughly updated version. Rivers are shown on regional maps and described in detail, including the most productive stretches, access areas, stock levels, average size and record fish, vegetation, hatches, local permit requirements, seasons for each species, and the best flies to use.

Peter O'Reilly is an officer at the Central Fisheries Board and a recognized authority on Ireland's trout and salmon.
