Life seemed rocky from the start and I prayed for love, acceptance, and to feel important. My prayers were answered when Father Marcus became "the savior" who took me under his wing; but as one of the "chosen ones", it soon became clear this was not the experience any child would want or deserve. This riveting story based on true events will take you on my journey of almost fifty years, and how I came to CHOOSE what my future would be despite a painful past.
